5. Guest speaker – Senator Judith Guthertz, Military Build-up
Senator Guthertz wants everyone to know that she is pro build-up. She advocates for job creation and continuously work towards insuring that the plans/decisions made are in the best interest of the people of Guam. Everyone must benefit and that a “win-win approach” is used. Build-up will be good for Guam if managed well. She stressed the importance of giving your comments before the December 10 deadline.
Other important dates: Draft SEIS – Early 2014
 Public Hearings on the draft SEIS – Early 2014
 Final SEIS – Late 2014
 Record of Decision (ROD) - 2015
The number has been scaled down to approximately 5,000 marines on a rotational basis plus 1,300 dependents. Location of housing and shooting range are still being studied.

It is very important for the island to help guide our military partners, give them alternatives, and present it in a way for them to understand. We need people willing to speak-up for what is right for Guam.

Military build-up information is available on www.guambuildupeis.us
6. Announcements: Free lunch raffle winner is Mayette Vicente from GWA.
AGA Christmas party will be on December 19.
7. Meeting adjourned at 1:20pm
